

International	National	State of New South Wales
1969 Club of Rome published "Limits of Growth". 1972 The United Nations General Assembly established World Environment Day 1975 The Belgrade Charter and the Tibilisi Declaration (1977) developed under the auspices of the UNESCO and United Nations Environment Program (UNEP) which outlined specific objectives for the implementation of environmental education. 1976 UNESCO-UNEP International Environmental Education	1970 Australian Academy of Science held a conference entitled: "Education and the Environmental Crisis". 1979 Australian Association of Environmental Education (AAEE) formed. 1980 Prof. Bill Stapp (American EE consultant) conducted inservice courses in environmental education awareness around Australia. 1983 First Environmental Education Unit established by the Commonwealth	1910 Gould League of Bird Lovers established 1936 Junior Tree Wardens formed. 1967 Gould League of Bird Lovers and Junior Tree Wardens combined to form the Gould League of NSW to promote environmental education. Adviser in conservation appointed by Department of Education. 1972 First Field Studies Centre opened. Association for EE (NSW) formed. 1974 First Gould League Education Officer appointed by Department of Education. EE resource writing team formed by Department of Education. 1976 Overview of EE in US investigated by Department of Education representative. program commenced.

1980

The World Conservation Strategy developed by the International Union for the Conservation of Nature (IUCN) and the World Wide Fund for Nature (WWF) which set clear principles for the place of education in the conservation of nature.

1992

The United Nations Conference on Environment and Development (UNCED) held in Rio, known also as the Earth Summit, which prepared a framework for international action known as Agenda 21.

Chapter 36 entitled "Promoting Education, Awareness and Training", called on nations to integrate environmental Department of Home Affairs and the Environment.

1987

Curriculum Development Centre. National Curriculum in cooperation with the states targeted environmental education.

1990

ACT government strategy on the Environment.

1991

National mapping of environmental education.

1995

Department of Environment, Sport and Territories and the Australian Association of Environmental Education. National

1977

EE consultant appointed by Department of Education.

1982

Combined position of EE consultant/Gould League Officer approved by the Department of Education.

1989

NSW EE Curriculum Statement launched. FSC numbers and functions increased. Professional development of teachers introduced in conjunction with release of the statement.

1992

Environmental Education Committee (EEC) of Environmental Protection Authority established.

1993

Release of NSW Government Policy: "A New Focus for Environmental Education".

1994

Ministerial Advisory Council on Environmental Education (MACEE) established by Minister for Education. NSW Board of Studies develops EE education throughout all levels and sectors of society.

Environmental Education Workshop.

1999
Today Shapes Tomorrow
A Federal Government discussion paper on Environmental Education.

principles for curriculum developers.

1997
Release of NSW Government Green Paper on EE

1999
Establishment of NSW Council on EE and creation of Environmental Education Centres

2001
Environmental Education Policy for Schools distributed.